

State of Wisconsin
Department of Public Instruction

Elizabeth Burmaster, State Superintendent

2008 INITIAL EDUCATOR DATA SEMINAR
Using Data to Support Initial Educators

MONDAY, JUNE 16, 2008 8:30 a.m.–3:30 p.m.

CHULA VISTA RESORT & CONFERENCE CENTER—WISCONSIN DELLS, WI

<http://www.learningpt.org/greatlakeswest/witq/data2008.php>

AGENDA

- 8:00–8:30 a.m. Continental Breakfast, Great Lakes West Comprehensive Center
- 8:30–8:40 a.m. Welcome and Introductions
Judy Peppard, Director, Teacher Education, Professional Development and Licensing
- 8:40–8:50 a.m. Teacher Induction and Mentoring: A National Perspective
Gretchen Weber, National Comprehensive Center for Teacher Quality
- 8:50–9:00 a.m. Wisconsin Induction Model
Tammy Huth, Assistant Director, Teacher Education, Professional Development and Licensing
- 9:00–9:30 a.m. Voices of First and Second Year Initial Educators
Panel Discussion
Facilitator: Beverly Cann, Education Consultant, Teacher Education, Professional Development and Licensing
- 9:30–9:40 a.m. Introduction to the 2007–08 Initial Educator and Mentor Survey
Beverly Cann and Allen Phelps, Great Lakes West Comprehensive Center, (UW–Madison)
- 9:40–9:50 a.m. Break, Great Lakes West
- 9:50 a.m.–noon Focused Workgroups: Quality Mentors, Support Seminars and Orientation, Development of the Professional Development Plan
- noon–12:45 p.m. Lunch, Great Lakes West

- 12:45–1:15 p.m. Workgroup Key Findings
- 1:15–2:40 p.m. Stakeholder Group Discussions
- 2:40–3:10 p.m. Stakeholder Group Reports
- 3:10–3:30 p.m. Next Steps, Follow-Up, and Evaluation
Linda Miller, Director, Great Lakes West
- 3:30 p.m. Adjourn

Seminar Outcome: To improve student learning through effective support systems for initial educators and increased retention of new teachers in Wisconsin PK–12 schools.

Seminar hosted with assistance from Great Lakes West Comprehensive Center.